

meiosis.org.uk

A small site that is interested in things botanical and historical, associated with the herbaria@home project

Lloyd, James 1810 – 1896

Posted on December 22, 2011 by Chris

James Lloyd (1810 – 1896)

1896; Irish Naturalist, 1896, 107. Adiantum Livingii Baker.
Lloyd, James (1810-96): b. 1810; d. Nantes, May 10, 1896.
'Flore de l'Ouest de la France,' 1854; ed. 4, 1898. Comp.
Bot. Mag. ii. 266; Pritz. 194; R.S.C. iv. 65, viii. 246; Journ.
Bot. 1896, 828.

JAMES LLOYD, well known as the author of the Flore de l'Ouest de la France, of which the first edition appeared in 1854 and the last in 1896, died at Nantes on May 10th, in his eighty-seventh year.

<http://herbariaunited.org/forum/viewtopic.php?t=6036>

β. estuarina. Feuil. vert clair, peu ou point épaisses, crénelées, celles de la tige sinuées-dentées; pét. oblongs, rétrécis graduellement en onglet; caps. elliptique ou arrondie-elliptique, bosselée, obtuse, tronquée ou même échancrée, comprimée par les côtés avec un sillon, à cloison très étroite, linéaire à la base par suite de l'avortement des graines. ②. j<sup>a</sup>-j. c. tabis herbeux ou nus, murs du quai des rivières au-dessus des marées ordinaires. — FIN. Quimper! (Bonnemaison, Guibo), anse de Plouvel, c. Ile Garv (Picq.), Quimperlé! (Martinière), puis c. en aval en Guidel (Picq.). — MON. En aval de Pontscorff, Hennebont (Guibo).

Related posts:

1. Montgomery, Archibald Sim (1843 – 1922) Montgomery was born in 1843 in Brentford, the son of a wholesale...
2. Philip, Dr. Judith (1911-1985) Judith Margareta Philip was born June 29th, 1911 in Barrow in Furness. ...

This entry was posted in 19th Century, Botanists. Bookmark the permalink.

meiosis.org.uk

Proudly powered by WordPress.